RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Conducting a self-designed study, "How Habitual Cooperative Video Game Playing Affects Prosocial Behavior", under the supervision of Dr. Christopher Redker. Running participants through the study to collect data for future analysis. Completed and submitted IRB application and subsequent revisions. Created experiment files, using MediaLab software, and additional materials (e.g. consent form, debriefing form, literature review, etc).

Fall 2016 -
Present

Analyzed the results from the Spring 2015 study using SPSS and interpreted findings with Dr. Christopher Redker and the student who created the study.

Fall 2016

Conducted a replication research study, "A Bad Taste in the Mouth: Gustatory Disgust Influences Moral Judgment", as lead researcher and lab manager with fellow members of Ferris' Psi Chi chapter under supervision of Dr. Christopher Redker. This was part of the national Psi Chi endeavor called CREP. Gathered existing experiment materials from the Open Science Framework database and created new materials specific to the replication. Handled IRB application and revisions. Coordinated, trained, and created the lab schedule for Psi Chi research members.

Spring 2016

Continued conducting the “Does holding implicit sexist beliefs affect one’s perceived prevalence of sexism in the world?” study as lab manager. Spring 2016

Worked with fellow undergraduate students to conduct a behavioral research study using pigeons under supervision of Dr. Janice Weaver. Weighed and fed pigeons daily. Ran pigeons through the experiment using a Skinner Box and collected data. Fall 2015

Continued conducting the “Does holding implicit sexist beliefs affect one’s perceived prevalence of sexism in the world?” study with new student researchers. Became manager of the social psychology lab. Responsible for coordinating and training the new researchers as well as creating the lab schedule. Fall 2015

Worked with a fellow undergraduate student to conduct his own student research project, “Does holding implicit sexist beliefs affect one’s perceived prevalence of sexism in the world?”, under supervision of Dr. Christopher Redker. Ran participants through the study to collect data. Spring 2015

Worked as part of a student researcher team to conduct a study, “Narcissism on the Jersey Shore: Exposure to Narcissistic Reality TV Characters Can Increase Narcissism Levels in Viewers” (Gibson, Hawkins, Redker, & Bushman, 2016), under the supervision of Dr. Christopher Redker. Ran participants through experiment to collect data. Fall 2014

PRESENTATION EXPERIENCE

Michigan Undergraduate Psychology Research Conference, Albion College, Albion, MI April 2015
Presented a professional poster for the “Surveillance Reality Television Exposure and Experience Taking: Potential Effects on Viewer Narcissism” study with a fellow undergraduate student who was also part of the study’s research team.
